

Gun Dog Puppy Camp

Towner, North Dakota

June 1- August 31, 2011

This camp is for juvenile dogs who will have the opportunity to hunt wild birds. Each dog will be introduced to de-gunning, retrieving and conditioning as well as preparatory skills needed for you or your professional to continue their training for competition or hunting.

Don't let your young dog miss out on the summer of it's life!

Julie's 360 acre camp is located in Towner, North Dakota. Many other hunting locations will be utilized as well.

Cost per puppy is $1,200 USD. Save $200 by paying in full by May 1, 2011.

Julie LaRue

Julie has been competing with her dogs since 2000 in the show, agility, and obedience rings; hunt tests; and field trials. She has nurtured, raised, trained and handled a 3 time National Field Champion, as well as other Vizsla, GSP and English Pointer field and show champions. She enjoys seeing a young dog's confidence grow as they are exposed to a variety of stimuli.
